

THE MISSING PIECE CHECKLIST

12 honest questions about your brand.

Go through this slowly. Be honest, not generous. Circle whatever's true — the pattern will tell you more than any single answer.

CONSISTENCY

- ☐ My logo, colors, or fonts look different depending on where someone finds me.
- ☐ I don't have a real style guide — decisions get made in the moment.
- ☐ My website and my social profiles don't feel like the same business.

PRESENCE

- ☐ My website is outdated, unfinished, or basically doesn't exist.
- ☐ Most of my new business comes from word of mouth, with nowhere solid to send people.
- ☐ If someone searched my business name right now, they might not find much.

POSITIONING

- ☐ People are regularly surprised by my prices — in either direction.
- ☐ I've been told my work is better than my website makes it look.
- ☐ I struggle to explain what makes me different in one sentence.

MOMENTUM

- ☐ I've started a rebrand or website project and stalled out before finishing.
- ☐ I know exactly what needs to change — I just haven't made time for it.
- ☐ There's no real deadline pushing this forward. It's been "someday" for a while.

Circled more than three? That's your missing piece.
